

SONGS & SONNETS

2 AUGUST
AT 19.00
ST URSULA'S CHURCH

MALCOLM GUITE

The evening will be a mix of song, story and poetry. Malcolm will be reading a selection of poems from his five collections, telling some stories about their composition and interspersing the spoken word with a few of his songs.

FREE ENTRANCE- DONATIONS ARE WELCOME FOR WORK WITH REFUGEES WITH THE UNHCR

ST URSULA'S CHURCH, JUBILÄUMSPLATZ 2, 3005 BERN
TEL: 031 352 85 67, EMAIL: OFFICE@STURSULA.CH

Malcolm Guite is a poet and priest, and Life Fellow of Girton College, Cambridge. He lives in Norfolk, England, and lectures widely in England and North America on Theology and Literature. His books include Sounding the Seasons; Seventy Sonnets for the Christian Year (Canterbury 2012). The Singing Bowl; Collected Poems (Canterbury 2013) and Parable and Paradox (Canterbury Press 2016) and Mariner: A Voyage with Samuel Taylor Coleridge (Hodder 2017) After Prayer (Canterbury Press 2019) and The Word Within the Words (DLT 2021) and Lifting The Veil, Canterbury Press, 2022.

In 2023 he was awarded the Archbishop Lanfranc Medal for Education and Scholarship by the Archbishop of Canterbury.

He has a YouTube series called 'A Spell in the Library' at

<https://www.youtube.com/c/MalcolmGuitespell>